In the case of a student emergency, the Director of Student Affairs, Health & Safety will notify all parties concerned. The Program Director will follow Emergency Protocol while onsite with the support of Headquarters (HQ). CISI student health insurance will get involved through a case opened with AXA Assistance if the student is hospitalized for any illness or injury. In the event of legal issues or arrest, the U.S. Consulate will get involved and give recommendations for legal representation.

Where do families go to find out more information about emergencies in France?

- See the State Department's travel website for the Worldwide Caution, Travel Warnings, Travel Alerts, and France's country-specific information
- Enroll in the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP) to receive security messages and make it easier to locate your student in an emergency.
- Contact the U.S. Embassy in Paris or Marseille. See details below:
 - Follow French government recommendations, updates, travel warnings, and news about natural catastrophes on

What can be expected of onsite staff? What happens when onsite staff is unavailable?

Onsite Staff maintain a 24/7 emergency number and are available to respond in person when students require immediate emergency assistance. CEA will arrange trained back-up coverage for Onsite Staff as needed. Phoenix HQ also has a 1 (800) emergency number for families and university partners to reach CEA that's available 24/7.

What learning support/accessibility features are available at SKEMA?

- Special Accommodations requests can be submitted to CEA prior to the program start. The form can be provided to students as needed.
- CEA works closely with SKEMA to analyze each special needs request and responds accordingly.
- A dedicated SKEMA advisor for International students is available for academic-related questions.
- SKEMA International Student Office staff offer support with visa issues, country specific questions, student card issues, adaptation, and immersion questions.
- Students access class information, schedules, and academic resources via their personal Educational Portal (YEP) for which they receive a personal login and password at SKEMA orientation.
- HELP POINT CENTER in Nice: HPC offers counseling and psychological services to all registered SKEMA students by appointment. Students receive detailed information at SKEMA orientation.
